Let your light so shine before them, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. —Matthew 5 - 16.

Relief Offering For Disaster And Famine

Saturday, May 25 will end a special six week period of "self-denial" for members of the Belle Glade Seventh Day Adventist Church. Each time a member sat down to a meal during this period he or she was reminded of the people in need throughout the world by means of a "special" self denial bank which has been placed on the table.

This special offering will be collected this Saturday for the Church's annual Disaster and Famine Relief Offering. Purpose of the offering, according to Floyd Erickson, Canal Point, home missionary leader of the church, is to bring relief to an ever increasing number of persons in the United States and abroad who simply do not have the means to survive.

Besides continuing poverty in thousands of cases, there are increasing numbers of persons who are "wiped out" in a single day, hour by hour.

In 1956, Adventists gave some $8,000 in cash, clothing, food and other supplies to aid persons in 30 different countries, affected by famine and disaster. The May offering alone is expected to bring in about $260,000 from Seventh Day Adventist churches throughout the world, Mrs. Erickson stated.

The funds will be used for shipping of supplies contributed by other elements of the church, and for the spot cash loans in emergency disaster conditions.

Nominating Committee Appointed At WMU Meet

The general meeting of the Women's Missionary Union was held at the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Martin Urwin presiding.

A nominating committee was appointed composed of Mrs. Ray Browne, Mrs. Henry Earwood, Mrs. Carl Hayes and Mrs. Mills Byars.

Mrs. E. D. Humphries presented the program. She introduced Wendell Carpenter, educational and music director of the church who presented the Royal Ambassador delegates, A. J. Schaefer, Skipper Schoepel and Gary Higbee. They gave reports on the RA convention held in Fox Lander, Ohio. The May offering alone is expected to bring in about $260,000 from Seventh Day Adventist churches throughout the world, Mrs. Erickson stated.

Postmaster Warns Of Mail Frauds

Postmaster George P. Farnall today urged residents of Belle Glade to report promptly to the post office any instances of mail frauds involving use of the mails, or offensive advertising material involving apparent medical quackery that enters their home.

Farnall said his suggestion was prompted by newest reports he has received from Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield and Chief Inspector David H. Stephens that use of the mails for medical quackery is at an all-time high.

The local post office, Farnall explained, under instructions from the Postal Inspection Service, turns complaints of medical frauds, as well as all other complaints of other types of mail fraud — which are also welcomed — over to postal inspectors for prompt investigation.

So far this year, postal inspectors have prepared cases for consideration by the Department of Justice, which conservatively, represent an annual loss to the public of $50 million.

In addition to handling public complaints by the thousands, the local postmaster noted, inspectors also handle materials offered and submitted for extensive examination by medical and chemical experts. The Department is working to identify and under which it contributes to the salary and expenses of doctors and chemists employed by the Post and Drug Administration for this purpose.

Some of the medical frauds most common today, in order of popularity, are "diet pills" for cancer, arthritis, "skin trouble," baldness and "lost manhood."

Industry's Most Modern Equipment Emphasized In Glades-Owned Unit

GENE BACON — Manager of Shirley Brothers Belle Glade Plant utilizes a loudspeaker system throughout the plant and yard to coordinate manufacturing and delivery to customers. Instructions to plant and delivery service to ready themselves for on-the-job timing of materials and Ready-Mix insures customers' interests.

Belle Glade's geographical location is emphasized as a convenient distribution center for all Glades communities in the block plant of Shirley Bros., located on the railroad and Northwest Sixteenth Street.

Shirley Brothers, which serves the Glades from Okeechobee to Moore Haven, has anticipated the growth of its territory through its location and acquisition of sufficient ground for expansion.

The addition of the most modern automatic machinery for manufacturing block, the preparation of Ready-Mix and fabrication of reinforcing steel has been made according to plans which provide for future expansion.

Following the recommendations of the Portland Cement Association which are based on field experience and laboratory trials, the proportioning of ingredients of the mix is controlled by weight for each batch.

Coral rock from south Florida pits, which has the approval of state agencies for consistency of strength, is screened for size before being shipped to the Shirley plant, and Lake Wales washed sand, are mixed with Portland Cement with the exact percentage of water to secure the consistency of wet mixture desired for the particular job. The recent rains have made it desirable to test the sand for moisture content before mixing in order that the exact amount of water might be added.

The seven Redi-Mix mixers and carriers of varying capacities enable the Shirley organization to deliver the redi-mix to its customers on a quality, quantity and time schedule.

The new automatic block machine, with moulds for special and regular blocks, has a capacity of 4,000 units per working day, and enable the plant to carry a stock on the curing yard at all times. For twelve hours following manufacture the blocks are left in a kiln, and then moved by lift truck operation to the curing yard.

Lift-truck loading of trucks for customer delivery facilitates loading at the yard as well as unloading at the job.

With a generous stock of reinforcing steel of sizes normally used it is practical to furnish this material cut and bent according to specifications on short notice to any point in the Glades.

Metal windows and structural steel, as well as cement, are carried in stock at the local yard, so that the builder has access to supplies at all times. The Pahokee plant of the same organization manufactures concrete joists, both floor and ceiling, and have found a most active market for this product, both in this immediate area, as well as throughout the state of Florida.

With some twenty odd employees from truck drivers to skilled laborers, sales force and executives, this organization adds substantially to the Glades economy in year-round payrolls thru furnishing US what WE NEED.

GLADES HEART
especially in the Glades, the following information from the state heart association should be of interest.

"It used to be said 'Americans live off the fat of the land.' So said Dr. John G. Smith of Rocky Mount, North Carolina a director of the American Heart Association, at an address before the Florida Heart Association at its Annual Meeting at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood, Florida.

Dr. Smith says research has found a new concept of atherosclerosis, the major cause of death in the United States, which causes brain strokes, heart failure or kidney damage.

Harris Agency Gets New Office

Moving into its own building with greatly expanded room and physical facilities, the Harris Insurance Agency marks a milestone in the growth of a business begun by the father of Junius Harris, who was a former mayor of this city, and his mother, the present Mrs. Esther Ringo.

Junius took over the business with his mother upon the death of his father in 1940, but shortly after, Junius went into the service, leaving the operation of the business to his mother and wife.

Following his service with Uncle Sam in World War II, Junius returned and has built a steadily growing clientele in the Glades in all forms of liability, storm and fire insurance.

Among the services offered the public over the years has been the issuance of drivers, fishing and hunting licenses.

Some two and a half years ago, Mr. Harris joined other Glades businessmen in the organization of the Seminole Life Insurance Co. and has been its treasurer and a member of the board of directors since its organization. This company has grown beyond the average expectation of such young companies.

Among those associated with the Harris Agency in its new building are Mrs. Esther Ringo, Mrs. Junius Harris, Mrs. Wilma Tabb and Mrs. Fred Ogle.

Editorials

MYRTLE BEACH, S. C., DAILY NEWS: "We can take a lesson in democracy from Iceland, where 90 per cent of the voters actually voted."

MONTEPELLIER, VT., EVENING ARGUS: "It shouldn't be too hard to get your temper. Who else wants it?"

HUMBOLDT, IOWA, REPUBLICAN: "After many years of experience in the newspaper business and a close association with the facts concerning many acts of delinquency by juveniles, and the attendant ransacking of homes, we have come to the conclusion that the best way to make sure of proper home training is to levy the penalty on the parents."

Economic Illiterates

The odds are overwhelming "that you are an economic illiterate." So writes Sylvia Porter, the well-known financial columnist. The reason for her indictment is this: "You're among the less than 5 per cent of all high school graduates in our land if you had even one semester course in economics."

Miss Porter recommends that economics be a required course in every high school and in the first two years of college. We live in a society which is dominated by economic considerations as workers and consumers we make economic decisions every day of our lives. The failure of the schools in this respect must be remedied.

Six Of The Best

Sydney, Australia, like many an American community, has been plagued by juvenile crime. Duck-tailed teen-agers, called bodgie-bods Down Under, have wantonly destroyed automobiles, engaged in gang wars, and beaten innocent bystanders. Sydney's answer takes the form of a two-pronged ordinance. First, the parents must pay for the damage done by their delinquent offspring. Second, as Robert Ruark vividly phrases it, "A father must, in the presence of a police officer, apply six of the best to sonny boy's stern . . . with a police whip, and to the satisfaction of the attending officer."

Sydney has set a precedent that every city and town could profitably follow.

When We Go Shopping

The cost of living has been the news again. The government's official index recently climbed fractionally to an all-time high. One reason was a rise in food prices.

However, before you angrily decide that someone is extorting you when you go shopping a few more facts should be taken into consideration. The National Association of Food Chains reports that food prices are still nearly three per cent below the 1952 peak, and that the average factory worker's take-home pay will buy him from 15 to 18 per cent more food now than it did in that prior year.

When prices rise, we tend to blame the retailer. That's a human failing—the man who sells us the goods and takes our money. But the fact is that a very small part of what we spend at retail does more than pass through his hands. Food chains, for instance, commonly earn a profit of about one cent on each sales dollar. Other kinds of stores earn three or four cents, and often less. The rest of the money goes for payrolls, supplies, rents, taxes, and so on.

There is still another factor that demands consideration in any price discussion. This is the tremendous change that has taken place in recent years in processing. We see it in the dramatic form in foods which come to us in virtually ready-to-eat form, and demand a minimum of time and work on the part of the housewife. Advanced processing of this nature requires much labor and costs money, and the consumer must pay for it.

We get top value when we go shopping—thanks in large part to our highly competitive mass distribution system.

Grassroots Opinion

Italy, Texas, News-Herald: "The federal government had no rights, no power, and no authority until it was given them by the various states. . . . Now we are face to face with a federal government that has forgotten its founding. We have a government that through the years has pre-empted rights it never had and which have never been delegated to it by the members of the union."

Wynne, Ark., Progress: "History has shown that freedom and paternalism simply don't mix. We hope that freedom will always be more precious to Americans than a federal hand-out."

Norwalk, Conn., Hour: "Michigan State University announced that of 40,000 college scholarships with a value of $3.1 million available in the United States, 17,000 went begging last year. The list of unclaimed scholarships should go to the principals of every high school in the land, with requests to recommend students who should encourage every qualified boy and girl to get them. Lack of money is no bar to higher learning, the time to start the war on erosion is when it begins."

New Telephone Office Created

Plans to establish a new telephone office to serve West Palm Beach - telephone subscribers were announced today by L. E. Rast, Florida Auditor for the Southern Belle Telephone Company. The new office will serve Central Florida and consists of West Palm Beach, Daytona Beach, Orlando and surrounding areas.

Rast said J. L. Bryan, a telephone executive of wide accounting experience, has been appointed District Auditor. Since coming to Florida in 1955, Bryan has headed up the accounting office which will be moved to Orlando from Jacksonville. Bryan has served in various accounting capacities in North Carolina and Tennessee.

E. F. Reddy, West Palm Beach District Manager, said the move to Orlando is the result of the tremendous growth in the Central Florida areas and in anticipation of an even greater growth in the future. Orlando was chosen as the location because of its centralized location within the area to be served.

Stated to begin operations with about 75 people, Rast said some 125 people will be employed by the end of the year. He estimated the annual payroll at $400,000. By the end of the second year it is estimated that the number of employees will top 175.

Since the work consists of handling various phases of telephone billing, most of the employees will be women with skills in stenographic, clerical and business machine work, Rast pointed out.

The new office will eventually handle complete customer billing for Central Florida. This will mean processing about one million long distance calls per month and rendering complete customer billing for some 130,000 telephone subscribers monthly.

W. T. Forsee, Jr., chemist in charge at the station, said earlier this week that growers and interested parties displayed interest in the station's work with hybrid corn varieties at the May 9 vegetable field day.

He went on to say that some hybrids were showing very good promise in their resistance to blight. Work continues now to develop the right ear type, appearance and siliqua characteristics. Progress here is good, too.

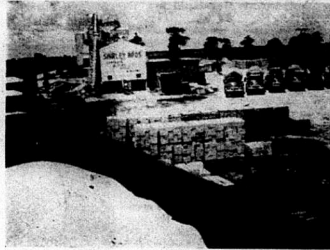

Yield date will be available soon since about three more weeks will be required for plot harvest and it may be July, Forsee said, before the results will be tabulated.

Glenn Smith, working through the USDA at Purdue University, Indiana, is visiting the local experiment station in connection with his work in breeding inbreds which are resistant to the disease.

Forsee went on to say that after about five years of research considerable progress is being made to control leaf blight.

Other activities of the May 9 field day included discussions of research results with varieties of vegetables, diseases, insect control, fertilizing and control of weeds, irrigation problems and others.

County Officers Declare

War on Loose Dogs Here

War on dogs, that is — by Constable W. L. Lee and Deputy Sheriff Bobby Newman this week, with the announcement that all dogs running loose in the county are due for shorter lives if they continue to bite adults and children and harass the community.

In making the announcement Constable Lee said several complaints had been made that dogs running loose had not been inculcated and the danger of the bitten persons disease was great.

"If owners don't get their dogs inoculated and tied up when they're dangerous," Constable Lee said, "then we're going to turn up some 38's."

Commercial rate, minimum of $6 per month based on four rooms with bath and $6 per month for each additional equivalent unit. Garbage service charge, $2.50.

The above figures are for the full plan. Under the reduced plan to provide facilities for 85% of the city, the annual debt service would be $71,556 and the operating expense $36,600.

Your Library

"A great library contains the diary of the human race — The great consulting room of a wise man is a library," G. Dawson. This week for your reading pleasure, Mrs. Bettie Harris, Librarian has chosen a book of a religious history which is appearing in McCall's magazine in serial form. It is The Day Christ Died by Jim Bishop, the author of the Day Lincoln Was Shot. Bishop has written this book with reverence and belief. His understanding of men in political life, his studies of the Roman as well as the Jewish worlds of the times and his flair for bringing to life—stirring the echoes of events which happened long ago — make the book extraordinary. As the book moves from Christ's human life to his life everlasting, it will move the reader to greater understanding and it may be to greater faith.

Local Firms Express Opposition To Gross Receipts State Tax

Our local representatives in Tallahassee, Reps. Emmette S. Roberts, Ralph Blank, Jr. and Senator Fred O. Dickinson are being informed of the opinions of businessmen in Belle Glade regarding the proposed over-all occupational license tax as to be based on "gross receipts."

Belle Glade businessmen and professional men have expressed their opinion to any license based on gross receipts and have so advised their legislators according to an announcement made this week by the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber has been advised that the tax would repeal all existing state occupational licenses. It is understood that the new law would apply to all businesses and professions. In other words, the chamber states, any individual or firm who has gross receipts would be required to pay the license.

By reports received at the chamber office it was learned that at least 20 letters written by businessmen have been sent to Tallahassee.

Application has been made to the Department of the Army by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Jacksonville, for modification of a permit issued March 26, 1956, to install a cable on the bottom of the Rim Canal, Lake Okechobee.

The permit call for the cable to be buried underground across the government levee parallel to and 47 feet northeastward from the centerline of SR 717 near Hurricane Gate four at Chosen.

The permit issued is merely a waiver of objections to the cable as public rights of navigation are concerned. It confers no franchise or property rights.

IT'S THE LAW

Subpoena, a Tool of Freedom. You may run across a curious phrase in the sixth amendment to our Federal Constitution. It says, "The accused shall enjoy the right... to be confronted with the witnesses against him... to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor."

A person may have reasons for not wanting to testify, for a witness must swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. If he does not tell the truth, he may commit "perjury"; that is, hears false witness—and could be sent to prison. Or if he fails to show up, he may be guilty of contempt and be punished. But why can a man force another to testify?

The reasons go far back into the history of tyranny. Suppose a man was suing a powerful lord, and you knew something to help the plaintiff to enforce his rights against the lord. You would certainly not like to testify in Court against the tyrant. You might fear reprisals. So to get a fair trial a man has the right, as the law says, to "subpoena" witnesses, to force them to testify in court, whether they want to or not. For example, in gang war trials the colon's client was acquitted at once. He was by such a subpoena.

Witnesses can be cross-examined. In a criminal trial, you have a right to be confronted by your accuser. Your attorney has the right to cross-examine them, and perhaps show up their mistakes or lies.

You remember the story of how Lincoln saved one of his clients. The key witness said that he saw the accused do the crime by the light of a full moon. Lincoln took out his almanac. It showed that the moon wasn't out that night at all. Lin-
